In the Matter of the Application of WHITTIER HOME TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY for an order extending time for compliance with Chapter 499 Laws of 1911 as amended by Chapter 600 Laws of 1915.	Application No. 2343.

BY THE COMMISSION.

First Supplemental Order.

The Railroad Commission having on September 26th, 1916, issued its Decision Number 3688 in the above entitled proceeding granting to Whittier Home Telephone and Telegraph Company an extension of time to and including June 30th, 1918 to reconstruct its existing system so as to comply completely with the provisions of Chapter 499 Laws of 1911 as amended by Chapter 600 Laws of 1915, on condition that at least one-half of the reconstruction work necessary to be done shall be completed on or before June 30th, 1917 and the entire work on or before June 30th, 1918; and

Petitioner having on June 26th, 1918 filed its supplemental application setting forth that as a result of difficulty in securing necessary labor it will be unable to complete all of its reconstruction work within the time provided in the Commission's Decision above referred to and asking for a further extension of time to and including June 30th, 1919, for the completion of its reconstruction hereinabove referred to, and it appearing to the Railroad Commission that this supplemental application should be granted and that this is not a matter requiring a public hearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the supplemental application herein be, and it is hereby granted; provided that progress reports as provided for in Decision Number 3688 shall be filed with the Railroad Commission for each successive period of six months subsequent to June 30th, 1918 to and including June 30th, 1919, in the manner as therein provided.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 17th day of July, 1918.
