Decision No. ✓.

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

- - - - -

In the matter of the application of PACIFIC ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY for authority to abandon and remove certain portions of its railroad tracks in that portion of the City of Los Angeles formerly known as the City of San Pedro, in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.	Application No. 1596.

By the Commission,

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY having on July 29th, 1917, made a supplemental application asking permission to abandon that portion of its track located on Palos Verdes Street, south of Fourteenth Street, permission to abandon which was withheld in the original order in this matter, and it now appearing that this track serves no useful purpose and that the Board of Public Utilities of the City of Los Angeles has recommended its removal; and that this application should be granted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Pacific Electric Railway Company be and the same hereby is granted permission to remove its track on Palos Verdes Street, south of Fourteenth Street, in that portion of the City of Los Angeles formerly known as the City of San Pedro, in accordance with its application.

The Commission reserves the right to make such further orders relative to this application as to it may seem right and proper.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 1st day of August, 1917.
