BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

-oOo-

ORIGINAL

In the Matter of the Application of FRANK A. WARFIELD for certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate passenger and baggage also parcel service between Avila and San Luis Obispo, California.

Application No. 8743

BY THE COMMISSION,

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

On October 23, 1923, the Railroad Commission issued its Decision No. 12736 in the above entitled application granting to Frank A. Warfield a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the operation of automotive passenger stage service between San Luis Obispo and Avila and intermediate points.

Condition No. 1 provided that the certificate must be accepted in writing within ten days, time schedules and rates filed within twenty days and service commenced within not to exceed thirty days. None of such conditions have been complied with. The Commission is informed that said Warfield has left the district in question and does not intend to commence operation.

THEREFORE, GOOD CAUSE APPEARING,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Decision No. 12736 be, and the same hereby is revoked and annulled.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 28th day of November, 1923.
