certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate auto stage line for transportation of passengers between Rodeo-Livermore, and intermediate points.

Application No. 5274.

In the Matter of the Application of
WALTER WILLIAMS, ALBERT PIETRONAVE and PERCY L. BLISS, doing business under the fictitious name and style of BAY SHORE STAGE COMPANY, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate auto stage line for transportation of passengers between Oakland and Martinez.

Application No. 5361.

BY THE COMMISSION:

OPINION AND ORDER DENYING REHEARING.

An application for rehearing having been filed herein by the WESTERN MOTOR TRANSPORT COMPANY on January 9, 1922, asking that this Commission reopen these proceedings for a review and reconsideration of the propositions set forth in its prior decision herein (Decision No. 9892) relative to the establishment of through service by the combination of operative rights under certificates separately granted or otherwise acquired and in absence of a certificate distinctly authorizing such through service; the Commission having fully considered the matters set forth in said petition, and being of the opinion that the construction of the regulatory statute as set forth in its prior decision herein No. 9892 is correct, and no good cause appearing why said decision should not now be made effective,--

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said application of WESTERN MOTOR TRANSPORT COMPANY filed herein January 9, 1922, be, and the same is hereby denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 3rd day of November, 1924.
