BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER DENYING REHEARING

On December 17, 1924, the Railroad Commission issued its Decision No. 14369 in the above entitled proceeding. On December 26, 1924, defendants Henry E. Holmes and Philbrook W. Holmes doing business under the firm name and style of H. E. and P. W. Holmes, filed their petition for rehearing, and after full consideration of the allegations set forth in said application for rehearing, the Commission finds that said petition does not set forth sufficient grounds which would warrant a reconsideration or rehearing of its Decision No. 14369, and

THEREFORE, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that petition for rehearing be and the same hereby is denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 5th
day of January, 1925.
