BY THE COMMISSION -

FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

WHEREAS, in Decision No. 13190, dated February 20, 1924, on Application No. 9796, the Railroad Commission authorized Lee Jaqua and D. R. Jaqua, co-partners, to lease to Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, a corporation, an operating right for an auto stage service between San Luis Obispo and Santa Maria and intermediate points, the lease agreement providing for an initial payment by Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, of $500., and for monthly payments of $250., for 11 months thereafter, with an option to purchase said property right on the payment of an additional sum of $1.00.

WHEREAS, in a supplemental application filed under date of February 18, 1925, applicants have petitioned for an order of this Commission approving the transfer by the Jaqua partnership to Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, a corporation, of the operating right heretofore leased by said corporation, and

WHEREAS, a bill of sale attached to said supplemental application, and made a part thereof, sets forth that on February 11, 1925, applicant, Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, had exercised the terms of the lease agreement and that on the payment of $1 Jaqua and Jaqua, co-partners, had sold to Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, a corporation, subject to the approval of the Railroad Commission, all their right, title and interest in the operating right heretofore leased by them to Pickwick Stages, Northern Division, all in accordance with the terms of the leasing agreement filed with the original application and made a part thereof, therefore,

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the supplemental application filed in the above entitled application be and the same hereby is granted.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 14th day of May, 1925.
