Decision No. 17929

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of CALIFORNIA WHARF AND WAREHOUSE COMPANY, a corporation, for approval of the renewal of a wharf franchise.

Application No. 13188

ORIGINAL

BY THE COMMISSION:

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

WFEREAS, on December 7, 1926, the Railroad Commission of the State of California issued its decision and order No. 17718 in the above-entitled application approving the renewal of a certain wharf franchise, more particularly described in said decision and order; and

WHEREAS, in said order it was provided that such order should not become effective until the California Wharf and Warehouse Company, a corporation, had filed with this Commission for approval a stipulation declaring that neither it nor its successors, transferees or assigns will ever claim before the Railroad Commission,or any court or other public body, a value for said right, privilege and franchise in excess of the amount actually paid to the County of Contra Costa, State of California, as a consideration for the granting of said right, privilege and franchise, which amount was to be included in said application; and

WHEREAS, California Wharf and Warehouse Company, a corporation, has filed with this Commission a stipulation in form satisfactory to this Commission:setting forth the above requirements:

NOW, THEREFORE, the Railroad Commission of the State of California hereby approves said stipulation, and declares its said decision and order No. 17718 to be effective from this date forward.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 26th day of January, 1927.
