BY THE COMMISSION -

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

WHEREAS, Charles Hair, operating under the name of Hair Truck Company, has requested, under date of May 9, 1927, that the Railroad Commission issue an order revoking the certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the operation by him of an auto trucking service for the transportation of alfalfa and hay and sacked oat, wheat and barley grain between Riverside and points in contiguous territory which was granted to him by the Railroad Commission in its Decision No. 16987, dated June 25, 1926, and issued on Application No. 11361, and

WHEREAS, said Charles Hair in said letter declares that the service conducted by him is a service not within the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission because not operated between fixed points or over a regular route or routes, and

WHEREAS, Charles Hair further declares that his operations are those of a contract hauler and not those of a common carrier, now

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the certificate of public convenience and necessity heretofore granted to Charles Hair by the Railroad Commission in its Decision No. 16987 be and the same hereby is revoked and annulled, with the understanding, however, that this order shall in no wise be construed as a determination by the Railroad Commission of the character of the operations of said Charles Hair.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 17th day of May, 1927.
