RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation, for an) Application No. 13499.
order approving an operating agreement be-) tween said corporations.)

BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N

The Glendale and Montrose Railway, a corporation, and the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company, a corporation, have filed with the Railroad Commission of the State of California an application requesting the approval of a certain joint operating agreement, dated April 10, 1926, which will supersede and cancel all prior agreements and supplementary or amendatory agreements executed by these applicants and approved by this Commission in Application No. 8805, Decisions Nos. 11812 and 13050, dated March 17, 1923, and January 15, 1924.

The supporting agreement attached to the application and made a part thereof, which is hereby referred to and by reference made a part hereof, contains 44 sections covering joint use and operation of certain tracks in Glendale owned by the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company, and the maintenance of the tracks, station facilities, etc. The agreement contains nothing contrary to public policy and the operations proposed will result in services beneficial to the traveling and shipping public.

We are of the opinion that this is not a matter in which a public hearing is necessary and that the application should be granted.

C R D E R

The Glendale and Montrose Railway and the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company having applied to the Commission for authority to enter into a certain agreement attached to the application and more specifically referred to in the foregoing opinion, and there appearing to be no reason why this application should not be granted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this application be and the same is hereby granted upon the condition that this Commission or other competent authority shall at all times have the right to revise or alter any or all terms and provisions of said agreement.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 4th day of June, 1927.
