BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER DENYING REHEARING

Petition for a rehearing of our Decision No. 18217
 in the above entitled matters was filed by California Transit Company a party thereto. Argument has been had thereon and we are now fully advised in the premises, and, after careful consideration of each and every allegation and argument thus produced, we are constrained to deny said petition.

In this connection, while we believe that evidence of desirability or necessity for the abandonment of rail service upon any given line of railroad may, in a proper case, be evidence upon the question of public convenience and necessity for a proposed substitutional automotive service, it should be understood that the action taken herein is based solely upon the particular facts and the peculiar situation herein developed, and that all cases of this or similar nature which may arise in the future must be determined upon the particular facts which may therein be brought to our attention.

O R D E R

Petition for rehearing having been filed in the above entitled matters by California Transit Company, and no good cause therefor appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said petition for rehearing be and the same is hereby denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 13th day of July, 1927.
