Decision No. 19431.

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the matter of the application of Southern Pacific Company for an order authorizing it to move and relocate its combination freight and passenger station building at the non-agency station of Beresford, San Mateo County, California.

ORIGINAL

Application No. 14411.

BY THE COMMISSION:

O R D E R

Southern Pacific Company, a corporation, filed the above entitled application with this Commission on the 8th day of February, 1928, asking for authority to move and relocate its combination freight and passenger station building at the non-agency station of Beresford, in the County of San Mateo, State of California. The purpose of such relocation is stated to be to improve the view conditions at a nearby highway crossing with the tracks of applicant and it appears to the Commission that the proposed relocation is in the public interest and that the application should be granted, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that permission and authority be and it is hereby granted to Southern Pacific Company to move and relocate its combination freight and passenger station building from the location shown in yellow on the map (Coast Division Drawing 20316), attached to the application, to the location shown in red on said map.

The authority herein granted shall become effective on the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 2nd day of ~~February~~ ^{March}, 1928.
