

ORIGINAL

Decision No. 19943

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

In the Matter of the Investigation upon the Commission's own motion into the service, classifications, contracts, practices, rules and regulations of Miller & Lux, Inc., a corporation, in the supplying of water for domestic use to residents of a tract of land commonly known as the "Miller & Lux Colony", located in the San Joaquin Valley in the vicinity of Firebaugh and Mendota, Fresno County, California.

Case No. 2317.

J.E. Woolley, by Vincent J. McGovern,
for Miller & Lux, Inc., Defendant.

David E. Peckinpah, for Linnie Cooper, a consumer.

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above entitled proceeding be and the same is hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 29th day of June, 1928.

Leon White
C. Seaver

Thos. D. Laiter

Commissioners