

Decision No. 22370.ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

In the matter of the application of PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY, a corporation, for an order of the Railroad Commission of the State of California granting to applicant a certificate of public convenience and necessity to exercise the right, privilege and franchise granted to applicant by Ordinance No. 368 C.S. of the City Council of the City of Petaluma, County of Sonoma, State of California.

Application No. 16432.

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER

Pacific Gas and Electric Company has asked this Commission to make its order declaring that public convenience and necessity require and will require the exercise by applicant of the right, privilege and franchise granted to it by Ordinance No. 368 C.S. of the City Council of the City of Petaluma in order that applicant may continue to furnish and supply gas to the inhabitants of that City. It has also filed a resolution of its Board of Directors to the effect that it, its successors or assigns, will never claim, before the Railroad Commission or any court or public body, any value for the aforesaid franchise in excess of the actual cost which is stated to be Three Hundred Thirty-nine Dollars and Seventy-five Cents ($339.75).

Having considered the request and being of the opinion that a public hearing is not necessary and that the request should be granted,

The Railroad Commission of the State of California hereby certifies and declares that public convenience and necessity require and will require the exercise by Pacific Gas and Electric Company of the rights and privileges granted by Ordinance No. 368 C.S. of the City Council of the City of Petaluma.

The authority herein granted shall become effective from and after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 26th day of April, 1930.
