BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

In the Matter of the application of
 THE COAST COUNTIES GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY, a corporation, for an order of the Railroad Commission of the State of California, granting to applicant a certificate of public convenience and necessity to exercise the right, privilege and franchise granted to applicant by Ordinance No. 5 of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

Application No. 15799.

BY THE COMMISSION:

SUPPLEMENTAL OPINION AND ORDER

In its Decision No. 21697, dated October 21, 1929, this Commission granted a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company authorizing applicant to construct and operate the natural gas transmission and distribution systems referred to therein and to exercise within its electric service area therein defined the franchise rights granted to it under Ordinance No. 5 of the County of Santa Clara, subject to certain conditions among which were the following:

- " (3) That lines shall not be constructed or operated in Morgan Hill unless and until Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company shall file with this Commission satisfactory evidence that it has received a franchise from the proper local authorities.
- (4) Upon the filing of evidence referred to in paragraph (3) above, together with a satisfactory stipulation that applicant will never claim a value for said franchise in excess of the actual cost thereof, this Commission will issue its supplemental order authorizing the exercise of rights granted by such franchise."

Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company now having filed with this Commission a certified copy of franchise granted to it under Ordinance No. 75 of the Town of Morgan Hill, and a certified copy of resolution duly executed on authority of its board of directors agreeing that applicant will never claim a value for said franchise in excess of $325.00, the actual cost thereof, both in proper form, the Railroad Commission of the State of California hereby orders that a certificate of public convenience and necessity be and the same is hereby granted to Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company authorizing applicant to exercise the rights and privileges granted by such franchise.

The authority herein granted shall be effective from and after the date of this order.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 13th day of May, 1930.
