Decision No. 23527.

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of Indian Valley Railroad Company for authority to close agency at Veramont,
 County of Plumas, State of California.)

Application No. 17250.

BY THE COMMISSION:

O R D E R

Indian Valley Railroad Company, a corporation, on March 12, 1931, applied for authority to abandon its agency at Veramont Station on its main line in Plumas County, State of California.

Applicant alleges that the total sales for passenger tickets, including local and inter-line tickets, amounted to $261.20 at said agency during the year ending February 28, 1931; that the total amount collected on freight charges amounted to $9,382.66 during the same period; that the nearest agency to the west is at Crescent Mills, a distance of 4.1 miles, and to the east at Engle Mine, a distance of 9.1 miles; that applicant operates but one train per week through said station; that the abandonment of said agency will not involve the abandonment of any facilities; that the station will be continued as a non-agency station; and that, in applicant's opinion, the continued maintenance of the agency is not necessary for the business of applicant or for the public.

It appearing that a public hearing is not necessary herein and that the application should be granted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Indian Valley Railroad Company is hereby authorized to abandon its agency at its station of Veramont, located on its main line in Plumas County, and to change its station records and tariffs accordingly, provided that said station be continued as a non-agency station.

Applicant shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, notify this Commission, in writing, of the abandonment of the facilities authorized herein and of its compliance with the conditions hereof.

The authorization herein granted shall lapse and become void if not exercised within one (1) year from the date hereof unless further time is granted by subsequent order.

The authority herein granted shall become effective on the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 23rd day of March, 1931.
