Decision No. 23946

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA In the Matter of the Application ) of H.A. INGALLS for certificate of ) public convenience and necessity ) Application to operate an auto truck line between ) No. 17299. Bakerafield and Los Angeles and ) intermediate points via Mojave. )

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

H.A. Ingalls, applicant herein, having filed with the Commission his application for certificate to conduct automotive passenger and property transportation between Coalinga and Los Angeles and all intermediates and without attaching hereto time schedules, tariffs and lists of equipment, as required by the rules of this Commission; and, applicant having frequently since April 13, 1931, the date of filing, having been urged to comply with the rules by making such filings, without which said application is unintelligible, and having failed so to do;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said application of H.A. Ingalls be and the same is hereby dismissed for want of proper prosecution.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this Lollday of August, 1931.

Cloca

間口

АŻ