Decision No. 24684.

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the matter of the application of the County of Orange for an order authorizing the widening and improving of an existing crossing over the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks and right of way on Main Street at La Bolsa Station near the City of Huntington Beach, Orange County, California.

Application No. 17971.

ORIGINAL

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Applicant having, on April 1st, 1932, advised, in writing, that it now plans to widen and improve the grade crossing of 23rd Street with the tracks of Southern Pacific Company at La Bolsa Station in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's General Order No. 28, rather than by formal procedure; therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Application No. 17971 is hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 11th day of April, 1932.
