BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N

Grover C. Jacobsen, doing business as Golden Eagle Lines, has filed First and Second Supplemental Applications for additional branch ticket offices under his Motor Carriers Transportation License.

Columbia Pacific Nitecoach Lines, Inc., a corporation, has filed its application for a Motor Carriers Transportation License for the sale of motor stage tickets at its principal office in Los Angeles, California and at branch offices in the State of California.

A public hearing on these applications was conducted before Examiner Handford at Los Angeles at which time the matters were duly consolidated for the receipt of evidence and decision, were duly submitted and are now ready for decision.

The record shows protest against certain proposed agents and branch offices of Golden Eagle Lines, and it was stipulated by the attorney for such applicant that any protested agency against which evidence was introduced should be eliminated from the list of branch offices herein applied for. The order herein will eliminate such protested locations.

There was no protest against the granting of the application of Columbia Pacific Nitecoach Lines, Inc.

O R D E R

Public hearing having been held on the above entitled matter, same having been duly submitted and the Commission being now fully advised,
