

Decision No. 10270

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ORIGINAL

W. P. FULLER & COMPANY, Complainant.

vs.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY,
Defendant.

CASE NO. 1684.

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR REHEARING

On January 14, 1922 W. P. Fuller & Company filed a complaint alleging that the rate on 24 carloads of fuel oil shipped from San Francisco to South San Francisco during the period September 7, 1920 to June 17, 1921 was unreasonable and discriminatingly high as compared to the charges for other freight handled in the same service during the same period of time.

A public hearing was held, the matter submitted on briefs, the Commission's opinion rendered upon the evidence before it and its order made accordingly.

The complainant's petition for rehearing does not indicate that any new evidence has been found, but simply asks that the case be re-opened so that another opportunity would be given to present details more fully and completely.

Under the circumstances, the Commission sees no reason why this case should be re-opened and the petition for a rehearing is, therefore, denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 1st day of April, 1922.
