

Decision No. 11344.

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

J. F. Driscall and Son and
James H. Young, Complainants

vs.

Case No. 1824

The Pacific Telephone
and Telegraph Company, Defendant

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

The complainant, James H. Young, in above entitled matter, having in a letter received by the Commission on October 20, 1922, withdrawn his complaint, and complainants J. F. Driscall and Son having removed from Oakland to the City of Stockton, and no longer having cause for complaint,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the complaint be, and it is, hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 11th day of December, 1922.

H. B. Brundage
James H. Young
James H. Young

Commissioners