

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION
OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Decision No. 2500

ORIGINAL

In the Matter of the Application of ORO ELECTRIC CORPORATION, a corporation, for a certificate that public convenience and necessity require the exercise by it of certain rights and privileges under franchise heretofore granted to it by the City of Stockton, San Joaquin County, California.

App. No. 844.

EDGERTON, Commissioner:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL.

Oro Electric Corporation having, on November 25, 1913, filed with this Commission the above-entitled application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to exercise certain rights and privileges alleged to be granted to applicant by the City of Stockton in Ordinance No. 566 of said City, approved December 30, 1912, and the Supreme Court of California having, on February 24, 1915, in Oro Electric Corporation v. Railroad Commission of the State of California, reported in Vol. 49, California Decisions, page 286, rendered a decision holding that the City of Stockton did not have power to grant to Oro Electric Corporation the very franchise which is the subject of this application, and it appearing, therefore, that this is an application for authority to exercise rights under a franchise which the City of Stockton did not legally have the power to grant to applicant,--

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this application be, and the same is hereby dismissed.

The foregoing order is hereby approved and ordered.

filed as the order of the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 19th day of June, 1915.

Max Thelen

Edwin O. Edgeston

Frank R. Holman

Commissioners.