BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

In the matter of the application of PACIFIC ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY for permission to construct its tracks above certain streets in the City of Los Angeles.

Application No. 2047.

By the Commission.

ORDER

PACIFIC ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY, a corporation, having on January 12, 1916 filed with the Commission an application for permission to construct its tracks above Los Angeles Street, Maple Avenue, Wall Street and San Julian Street, in the City of Los Angeles, as hereinafter indicated; and it appearing to the Commission that this is not a case in which a public hearing is necessary; that the necessary franchise has been granted by the City Council of the City of Los Angeles for the construction of said crossings above said streets; and it further appearing that this application should be granted subject to the conditions hereinafter specified;

Pacific Electric Railway Company to construct its tracks above
Los Angeles Street, Maple Avenue, Wall Street and San Julian
Street, in the City of Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California, as shown by the map attached to the application and more particularly described in the application, said crossings to be constructed subject to the following conditions, viz:

(1). The entire expense of constructing said crossings, together with the cost of their maintenance thereafter in good and first-class condition for the safe and convenient use of the public, shall be borne by applicant.

- (2) The clearances above these streets shall be constructed to conform to the Commission's General Order No. 26, with the exception of San Julian Street, the overhead clearance of which shall not be less at the center line of that street than 12.25 feet above the crown of the roadway.
- further orders relative to the location, construction, operation, maintenance and protection of said crossings as to it may seem right and proper, and to revoke its permission if, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity demand such action.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 25th day of January, 1916.
