BY THE COMMISSION:

O R D E R

PLAZA STAGES, a co-partnership composed of R. S. Anthony and J. S. Bothwell, having applied to the Railroad Commission for certificate that public convenience and necessity require them to operate a passenger stage service between San Diego and Camp Kearney, and it appearing at the hearing upon Application No. 3229 as shown by Decision No. 4874 of November 24, 1917 that the public convenience and necessity require such service, and that it will be largely under military control, and under the circumstances no public hearing appearing to be necessary,

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION HEREBY DECLARES that public convenience and necessity require the operation by Plaza Stages, a co-partnership composed of R. S. Anthony and J. S. Bothwell, as co-partners, of an automobile stage service as a common carrier of passengers between San Diego and Camp Kearney; provided that this declaration shall not become effective until said partnership has procured from the Railroad Commission a supplemental order herein reciting that it has filed certified copies of permits from the City of San Diego and the County of San Diego as required by Chapter 213, Laws of 1917, and provided further that the rights and privileges herein granted shall not be assigned or transferred unless the written consent of the Railroad Commission to such assignment or transfer has first been secured, and

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that no vehicle may be operated under this certificate unless such vehicle is owned by the applicant herein or is leased by such applicant under a contract or agreement on a basis satisfactory to the Railroad Commission.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 27th day of November, 1917.
