BY THE COMMISSION.

FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

Whereas, the Railroad Commission on July 13, 1912, issued its Decision No. 133 in the above entitled proceedings, providing in Section I, Paragraph (c), as follows:

"A directory or directories showing the subscribers of the Pasadena Exchange shall be furnished each of such subscribers not less than twice each year. Such directory or directories shall also contain the names and numbers of all the subscribers of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company of the city of Los Angeles and contiguous territory, and in the Pasadena edition of such directory, the Pasadena lists of subscribers shall appear first. A directory or directories shall also be furnished each of such subscribers by the United States Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph Company not less than twice annually, containing all the subscribers of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Los Angeles, and also the subscribers of other independent companies in territory contiguous to Los Angeles."

And Southern California Telephone Company, as successor to The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Los Angeles, in the City of Los Angeles, having on March 27, 1918, applied to the Railroad Commission for a modification of said above order, in so far as it relates to the issuance and delivery to subscribers of Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Pasadena of directories of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Los Angeles,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED by the Railroad Commission that Paragraph (c) of Section I, Decision No. 133, be and it hereby is modified to read as follows:

A directory or directories showing the subscribers of the Pasadena Exchange shall be furnished each of such subscribers not less than twice each year. Southern California Telephone Company, as successor to The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Los Angeles, in the city of Los Angeles, shall furnish to the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Pasadena not less than twice each year for delivery to any subscribers of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Pasadena who may desire, a sufficient number of the directory or directories of Southern California Telephone Company. Such directory issued by Southern California Telephone Company shall contain a list of all of its subscribers of its Los Angeles Exchange, and also the subscribers of other independent companies operating in territory contiguous to Los Angeles and heretofore listed in the directories of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Los Angeles.
