BY THE COMMISSION:

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER.

BYRON-BETHANY IRRIGATION COMPANY having procured proper authority to cross public roads, highways and public property in Contra Costa, Alameda and San Joaquin counties where necessary for the purpose of its irrigation system, and having filed proof thereof with the Railroad Commission and also having filed with the Railroad Commission a stipulation in form satisfactory to the Commission, duly authorized by the Board of Directors of applicant to the effect that it, its successors or assigns will never claim before the Railroad Commission or any other public authority any value for said right, privileges or authority to cross said public roads, highways or public property,--

The RAILROAD COMMISSION does hereby declare that public convenience and necessity require, and will require, the service by said Byron-Bethany Irrigation Company of irrigation water through its canals and system located in said

Contra Costa, Alameda and San Joaquin counties, substantially as shown on map attached to the application, and that said company has fully complied with the terms and conditions of the order in Decision No. 4363 herein.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 12th day of June, 1918.
