In the matter of the application of San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, a corporation, for a certificate that public convenience and necessity require the exercise of rights and privileges granted to it by Ordinances No. 286 and No. 287 of the City of Richmond, Contra Costa County, California.) Application No. 475

BY THE COMMISSION.

San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways Company, having applied to this Commission for a certificate that public convenience and necessity require the exercise of the rights and privileges granted to applicant by the City of Richmond in its Ordinances No. 286 and No. 287, both adopted on January 27, 1913, by which Ordinances applicant is given the right to lay down, construct, maintain and operate a single or double track street railroad, along and upon certain specified streets in the City of Richmond, and the Commission being of the opinion that this is not a case in which a public hearing is necessary,

IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that public convenience and necessity require the exercise by San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways of the rights and privileges granted to said company by the City of Richmond in its Ordinances No. 286 and No. 287.

By order of the Railroad Commission.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 7th day of April, 1913.
