Decision No. 59

BEFORE THE

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

In the Matter of the Application
Of The RIVERSIDE-REDBLANDS INTERURBAN
RAILWAY COMPANY for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity.

APPLICATION NO. 4.

ORDER DENYING APPLICATION.

The Commission having considered the petition of the RIVERSIDE-REDBLANDS INTERURBAN RAILWAY COMPANY for a certificate under the provisions of Section 50 (a) of the Public Utilities Act that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or will require the construction of a railway by said Company, as set forth in the application of said Company now on file with this Commission, and the Commission having concluded that said Company is a "railroad corporation" and not a "street railroad corporation" as said words are used in said section of the Public Utilities Act, and that the provisions of said section do not apply to a "railroad corporation," and that this Commission accordingly has no jurisdiction under the provisions of said section to issue a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to the applicant,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said application be and the same is hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 12th day of April, 1912.
