deed.)

By the Commission:

O R D E R

The Yolo Water and Power Company having applied for authority to execute a deed by the terms of which it conveys to Emma J. Tompkins certain rights, among which are:

The right to divert water from the waters of Cache Creek in Lake County along the line of a certain parcel of land belonging to applicant and containing 14.90 acres, more particularly described within the said deed, copy of which is attached to the application and marked Exhibit A, said water to be used for household, domestic, stock and irrigation purposes on that certain piece of land belonging to Emma J. Tompkins, containing 305.48 acres, less the 14.90 acres of applicant which lie within its boundaries, more particularly described in said deed;

The right to construct upon said land of applicant all necessary ditches, conduits and structures, except dams across Cache Creek, for diverting said waters for the above stated uses;

And the right to take water from Clear Lake and conduct it through Cache Creek or otherwise, but only at such times as there is not sufficient water in Cache Creek,

And it appearing to the Railroad Commission that a public hearing in the above entitled matter is not necessary,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the application be and the same is hereby granted.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 16th day of August, 1919.
