

Decision No. 717

ORIGINAL

Decision No. 717

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the matter of the application ) of THE FOWLER INDEPENDENT TELE- ) PHONE COMPANY for permission to ) Application No. 572 increase the monthly rental of ) telephones. )

By the Commission--

ORDER DISMISSING APPLICATION

The Fowler Independent Telephone Company having applied to this Commission for permission to increase its charges for telephone service, and it having appeared at the public hearing held upon this application that The Fowler Independent Telephone Company had not notified its patrons of said hearing in accordance with the instructions of this Commission, and also that The Fowler Independent Telephone Company had not fully prepared the evidence necessary to show an appraisal of its properties and its present financial condition;

And it being understood at the hearing that the above entitled application should be dismissed and that The Fowler Independent Telephone Company contemplated filing another application as soon as the necessary evidence had been collected;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above entitled application be and the same hereby is dismissed without prejudice.

By order of the Railroad Commission.
Dated at San Francisco, California, this 12th day of June, 1913.

John M. Cochran
Wm. Gordon
Max Thelen

Commissioners