BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of)
WM. LAMPERT and J. R. GARRETT COM -) PANY for authority to increase and) APPLICATION NO.5820 adjust warehouse rates at Marysville.)

Richard Belcher for Applicants.

BY THE COMMISSION -

O R D E R

William Lampert, an individual warehouseman and J. R. Garrett Company, a corporation, having applied to the Railroad Commission for authority to increase and adjust warehouse rates at their respective warehouses located in the city of Marysville, the proposed rates bringing about both increases and decreases, and having shown that operating costs have increased fifty percent (50%) or more since the existing rate schedules were filed,-

And it appearing to the Commission that the changes proposed are justified by the facts and will not result in unreasonable or discriminatory rates,-

And it appearing further that a public hearing in this case is not necessary,-

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that William Lampert and J. R. Garrett Company be and they are hereby authorized to establish and file with this Commission, effective five days thereafter, rate schedules showing charges for warehouse service as follows:
