BY THE COMMISSION.

ORDER

GUY McGUIRE, doing business under the fictitious name of Alexandria Transfer, and Lee Rosier, have made application to the Railroad Commission for an order authorizing the transfer of certain operative rights and privileges for the conduct of an automobile baggage and express service between Los Angeles and Santa Monica and Venice, California. The applicant, Guy McGuire desiring to sell, and the applicant, Lee Rosier, desiring to purchase, acquire and hereafter operate said service.

The rights and privileges, transfer of which is hereby authorized are those acquired by applicant, Guy McGuire, by reason of a certificate of public convenience and necessity having been granted by the Railroad Commission in its Decision No. 6519, on Application No. 4610, decided July 24, 1919.

The rights and privileges are to be transferred in accordance with an agreement made a part of this application.

We are of the opinion that this is a matter in which a public hearing is not necessary, and that the application should be granted.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that this application be, and the same hereby is, granted subject to the following conditions:

1. That applicant, Guy McGuire, doing business under the fictitious name of Alexandria Transfer, and Lee Rosier, will immediately file with the Railroad Commission the original or a certified copy of the Bill of Sale.
2. That the amount paid for the purchase of this property shall ^{not} be considered as a measure of value of said property before this Commission for rate fixing or any other purpose other than the transfer herein referred to.
3. That the applicant, Guy McGuire, shall immediately cancel all tariffs of rates and charges, on file with the Railroad Commission, in accordance with the provisions of General Order No. 51 and other regulations of the Railroad Commission.
4. That the applicant, Lee Rosier, will be required to file tariff of rates and charges, in his own name, or to adopt as his own the tariffs as heretofore filed by applicant, Guy McGuire, all rates to be identical with those filed by applicant, Guy McGuire.

5. The rights and privileges, transfer of which are hereby authorized may not again be discontinued, sold, leased, transferred nor assigned unless the written consent of the Railroad Commission to such discontinuance, sale, lease, transfer or assignment has first been secured.

6. No vehicle may be operated by the applicant, Lee Rosier, unless such vehicle is owned by him or is leased by him for a specified amount of a trip or term basis, the leasing of equipment not to include the services of a driver or operator. All employment of drivers or operators of leased cars shall be on the basis of a contract by which the driver or operator shall bear the relation of an employee to the transportation company.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 15th day of November, 1920.
