BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

C. C. Newton, proposing to operate under the fictitious name of Gilroy Trucking Company, has petitioned the Railroad Commission for an order declaring that public convenience and necessity require the operation by him of an automobile freight or express line between Gilroy and San Francisco.

A public hearing on this application was held by Examiner Handford at San Francisco on October 16, 1920, at which time and place there was no appearance on behalf of the applicant although due notice of such hearing was served upon said applicant and counsel for the American Railway Express and Southern Pacific Company appeared in protest.

Applicant having failed to appear to present evidence justifying the application, due notice having been given,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this application be and the same hereby is denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 5th day of ~~October~~ ^{December}, 1920.
