

Decision No. 9978

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of C. F. GREEN for an order authorizing permanently retaining service connection charges.

Application No. 8852.

ORIGINAL

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER

It appearing to the Commission that a formal hearing of the above-entitled application is not necessary, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that applicant is authorized to file with the Commission a revised rule, providing that applicant may retain permanently installation charges which he is now required to return to patrons in one year from the date of installation, in accordance with the provisions of Decision No. 8149 of the Railroad Commission, dated September 24, 1920.

Said rule may go into effect as soon as filed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 9th day of January, 1922.
