BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Investigation on the Commission's own Motion into the rates, rules, regulations, charges,
contracts, practices and operations,
or any of them, of BALFOUR, GUTHRIE & COMPANY, LTD., et al., JOHN F. BLAIN, an individual doing business under the fictitious name and style of STOCKTON TERMINAL SERVICE & STEVEDORING COMPANY.)

Case No. 3584.

ORIGINAL

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER DENYING REHEARING

John F. Blain, a respondent in the above entitled proceeding doing business under the fictitious name and style of Stockton Terminal Service and Stevedoring Company, petitioned for a rehearing of Decision No. 26384 directing him among others to file with the Commission tariffs containing rules and regulations applicable to his public utility operations of car loading and unloading and any and all accessorial services incidental thereto. Thereafter however respondent John F. Blain filed tariffs covering the service involved and by letter of December 20, 1934 stated through counsel that the petition might be denied, dismissed or otherwise disposed of. Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the petition of John F. Blain, an individual doing business under the fictitious name and style of Stockton Terminal Service and Stevedoring Company, for rehearing of the above entitled proceeding be and it is hereby denied.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 7th day of January 1935.
