ORIGINAL

BY THE COMMISSION:

FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

In its Decision No. 24323, dated December 21, 1931, in the above numbered application, this Commission ordered as follows:

"The Railroad Commission of the State of California hereby certifies and declares that public convenience and necessity require, and will require, the exercise by Southern Counties Gas Company of California, of the rights and privileges granted under Ordinance No. 215 of the Board of Trustees of the City of Claremont, Los Angeles County, subject, however, to the condition that applicant shall first have filed with the Railroad Commission of the State of California a stipulation duly authorized by its Board of Directors, agreeing that Southern Counties Gas Company of California, its successors or assigns, will never claim, before the Railroad Commission or any other public authority, any value for the franchise granted by said Ordinance No. 215 of the Board of Trustees of the City of Claremont, Los Angeles County, in excess of the actual cost thereof, which cost shall be stated in the stipulation, and shall have secured from the Railroad Commission a supplemental order herein declaring that such stipulation, satisfactory to the Railroad Commission, has been filed."

Applicant having on May 29, 1935, filed a satisfactory stipulation, as mentioned above, and having stated that the actual cost of said franchise granted by the City of Claremont was $219.66;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Southern Counties Gas Company of California be and it is hereby granted a certificate of public convenience and necessity and authorized to exercise the rights and privileges granted to it by the ordinance referred to in this Commission's Decision No. 24323; provided that the Railroad Commission may hereafter, by appropriate proceedings and orders, revoke or limit as to territory not then served by Southern Counties Gas Company, or its successors in interest, the authority herein granted.

In all other respects Decision No. 24323 shall remain in full force and effect.

The effective date of this Order shall be the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 10th day of June, 1935.
