

Decision No. 30777

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of EDWARD MALDE for authority to charge other than rates shown in Decision No. 28810 and other orders covering transportation of household goods, furniture, and personal effects.

Application No. 21671

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER

Edward Malde, doing business as A-B-C Transfer & Storage Co., having filed his verified application for authority to transport between points in the San Francisco Bay area under contract with the United States Government and at rates and charges named in said contract, household goods, furniture and personal effects for the United States Navy Department as more specifically set forth in said application, and

It appearing from said application that in the majority of instances rates the same as or in excess of minimum rates presently in effect for the same transportation will be observed and only in rare instances will rates lower than those established by the Commission be assessed, and

It further appearing from said application and contract attached thereto that said rates proposed for the performance of said transportation for the United States Navy Department are reasonable in that they will not constitute any unjust or unreasonable discrimination against other shippers or traffic;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said application be and it is hereby granted.

The authority herein granted shall expire July 1, 1938, unless extended by order of the Commission.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 11th day of April, 1938.
