Application No. 22047

BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N

J. L. Hawkins, operating under the fictitious name and style of Alturas - Fort Bidwell Stage Line, has petitioned the Railroad Commission for an order approving the sale and transfer by him to Leland H. Doss, operating under the fictitious name and style of Surprise Valley Stage Company, of an operating right for the automotive transportation as a highway common carrier of passengers and property between Alturas, on the one hand, and Cedarville, Lake City and Fort Bidwell, on the other hand; and Leland H. Doss, operating under the fictitious name and style of Surprise Valley Stage Company has petitioned for authority to purchase and acquire said operating right and to hereafter operate thereunder, the sale and transfer to be in accordance with an agreement, a copy of which, marked Exhibit A, is attached to the application herein and made a part thereof.

The consideration to be paid for the property herein proposed to be transferred is given as $250 which is alleged to be the value of the intangibles.

No equipment is to be transferred.

The operating right herein proposed to be transferred was created by Decision No. 28651, dated June 1, 1936, on Application No. 20147.

This appears to be a matter in which a public hearing is not necessary. The application will be granted.

Leland Doss is hereby placed upon notice that "operative rights" do not constitute a class of property which should be capitalized or used as an element of value in determining reasonable rates. Aside from their purely permissive aspect they extend to the holder a full or partial monopoly of a class of business over a particular route. This monopoly feature may be changed or destroyed at any time by the state which is not in any respect limited to the number of rights which may be given.
