CRATER, COMISSIONER:

Q PINIOn

Walter 3. Jones end R. $\because$. Jones (unrelated) have been operating a pubic utility water system as a co-partaership under the fictitious firm mane end style of Bond end jones Mater Company, supplying domestic end irrigation water in end around El modena and McPherson in Orange County. Ir this proceeding, Walter B. Tonerequests the Railroad Commission for authority to sell and transfer his undivided one-helf interest in the Veter comeny to his partner's son, M. J. Jones, sa to be relieved of any further publ Utility obligations ia connection with the system.

Said R. M. Jones and M. Z. Jones, Nether and son, as copartners, own and operate the Jones and Jones water Company, a public utility, furnishing meter in end around Il Modena. By supylemental apolication, request is made for authority to merge and consolidate these two systens under the fictitious firm name end style of Jones #̈ater Company.

A public hearing in this matto was teld in El Nodera, Orange County.

The evidence shows that the 3ond and Jones wiater Compeny has been in operation since ebout the year 1906. The interest of "Bond" in this firm formerly wes omed by :rary J. Sond and wes acquired by ier Erandson, 沈jter 3. Jones, in 1924. The Z1 Modena water system, now opereted as the Jonos and rones Water Company, has been in operation since sometime prior to tho year 1912 and wes açuired by its onesent orvers from the former Arerican States Water Company. These water plents operate in adfoinimg and contiguous territories, each obtaining its wator supply through ownership of stock in the John I. Carpenter Water Company, a mutual concern, organized primarily to engane in the business of the distribution of water to its merbers for agricultural irrigation purposes. The consolidation or thuse two weter systems under the same ownersinip and managoront should provido a nore efficient and oconomic oporating control. The retes now actually cherged, as well as the rulus end reguietions in offect, are the same on both systums, elthough tho filed tamies of the old 31 nodona wetor system arc somwat higher. Disoction will bo givon in the following order providing for the necossery refiline of uniform retos, fulos and Fcgulations.

The evidence further shows that the accounting and bookkeepine methods of these two compaies aro different. Under consolidated operation the new owexs will be required to open up a new sot of books.

The followit form of oncer is rocomended.
