

Decision No. 3963

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of PACIFIC GREY-HOUND LINES, a corporation, for exemption from certain rules and regulations of General Order
No. 93-A.

Case No. 3963

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORIGINAL

SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

Pacific Greyhound Lines, by its supplemental application filed January 14, 1941, requests the Commission to find that the service rendered by it between San Francisco and San Rafael, Fairfax, and Mill Valley, and the territory between San Francisco and San Mateo is urban service, as defined by Rule 1.014 of the Commission's General Order No. 93-A, exempting it from all the rules and regulations not applicable to urban service.

Good Cause Appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Pacific Greyhound Lines is granted permission to comply with the rules and regulations of General Order No. 93-A which apply to "urban" service on its passenger stage operations in the territory between San Francisco and San Rafael, Fairfax, and Mill Valley, and in the territory between San Francisco and San Mateo, with the exception, however, that it must comply with all of the provisions of Part IV of said General Order covering Time Tables, Rules, and Regulations.

The authority herein granted shall become effective immediately.

Dated at San Francisco, California, February 4th, 1941.
