Decision No. 34487

BEFORE THE RAILROAD COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of Southern California Gas Company for a Certificate that Public Convenience and Necessity Require the Exercise of Rights and Privileges Granted to it by Ordinance No. 767 of the City of Inglewood.

Application No. 24255

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER AMENDING DECISION

It appearing that the Order contained in the Commission's Decision No. 34451 of July 29, 1941, was not, in respect to certain of its provisions, in conformity with orders heretofore rendered by the Commission in issuing certificates of public convenience and necessity in like matters, and, the Commission being of the opinion that it does not have legal authority to impose certain conditions therein contained; therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the ordering part of the Commission's said Decision No. 34451 be and it is hereby amended to read as follows:

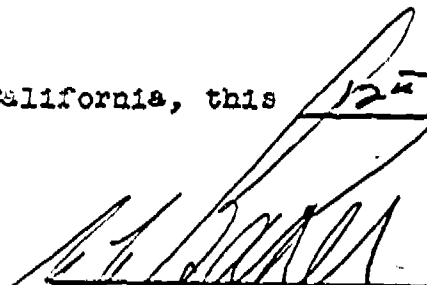

"A public hearing having been held upon the above-entitled application of Southern California Gas Company, and the matter considered, and it being found as a fact that public convenience and necessity so require,

"IT IS ORDERED that Southern California Gas Company be and is hereby granted a certificate to exercise the rights and privileges granted it by the City of Inglewood, County of Los Angeles, by Ordinance No. 767, adopted May 6, 1941, subject, however, to the condition that Southern California Gas Company, its successors or assigns, shall never claim before this Commission or any court or other public body a value for said franchise or for the authority hereby granted in excess of the actual cost thereof."

The effective date of this amended decision and order shall be the date hereof.

Dated, San Francisco, California, this 12th day of August, 1941.
