BY THE COMMISSION:

SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

By Decision No. 35092, dated March 3, 1942, the Commission licensed Roy E. Warren to engage in the business of a motor carrier transportation agent, subject to the condition that within sixty days from the date of said decision he should file with the Commission a surety bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). For good cause shown, the Commission, by its order in Decision No. 35477, dated June 9, 1942, extended the time within which to comply with the order in said Decision to and including September 1, 1942. Counsel for Warren now requests a further extension of time, alleging lack of automotive equipment under present circumstances. Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the time within which Roy E. Warren shall provide and file with the Railroad Commission a surety bond as required by the order of Decision No. 35092, in the above-entitled proceeding, is hereby extended to January 1, 1943.

Dated at San Francisco, California, September 15, 1942.
