Case No. 4686

BY THE COMMISSION:

ORDER DISCONTINUING PROCEEDINGS

The above entitled proceedings were instituted for the purpose of establishing maximum rates for the transportation of property by highway and city carriers, should the record support such action. Following a series of public hearings the Commission issued Decision No. 36787 of December 28, 1943, wherein it found that the record did not disclose any necessity for the immediate establishment of maximum rates. It decided, however, to continue the investigations for the purpose of receiving such further evidence as might become available. Since that time no need has been shown for further hearing in these proceedings.¹ Should further inquiry become necessary separate proceedings may be instituted. Under the circumstances it appears that the above entitled proceedings should be discontinued.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above entitled proceedings be and they are hereby discontinued.
