ORIGINAL

Application No. 24814

FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL OPINION AND ORDER

Pacific Gas and Electric Company asks for a supplemental order authorizing it to carry out the terms and conditions of a certain written agreement dated April 15, 1942, with Hammond Lumber Company, formerly known as Hammond Redwood Company, covering the sale of electric energy and steam to said lumber company and the purchase of hog fuel from it, as amended and modified by an agreement between said parties dated November 20, 1947, attached to its First Supplemental Application as Exhibit B.

The original agreement provided, with respect to duration, that it should continue in full force and effect for a period of ten years from and after the date on which operations thereunder commenced (subsequently established as May 1, 1942) and thereafter from year to year until terminated as therein provided.

The proposed agreement will extend the definite term of the original agreement for an additional period of five years ending May 1, 1957, after which it will continue from year to year as originally provided.

The parties to the supplemental agreement having evidenced their belief that it is to their mutual advantage and benefit, and the Commission believing that its authorization is in the public interest, therefore

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Pacific Gas and Electric Company is authorized to carry out the terms and conditions of that certain written agreement dated April 15, 1942, with Hammond Lumber Company, formerly known as Hammond Redwood Company (Exhibit A of the original application) as amended and modified by that certain agreement between Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Hammond Lumber Company dated November 20, 1947 (Exhibit B of the First Supplemental Application herein).

The effective date of this Order shall be twenty days from and after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 6th day of January, 1948.
