OPINION AND ORDER

By this application, Thomas W. Gilboy, an individual doing business as Gilboy Company, seeks authority to transfer certain operating rights to engage in business as a highway common carrier and operative property used in connection therewith to a co-partnership composed of Thomas W. Gilboy and Dorothy M. Gilboy.

The verified application states that the operative rights and property under consideration constitute the community property of Thomas W. Gilboy and Dorothy M. Gilboy, his wife; that they are now legally separated; and that a property settlement agreement has been executed providing that the community property shall be equally divided between them and the highway common carrier business shall be continued under a co-partnership in which they shall be equal owners. No change in management or operation is proposed. The active management of the business will continue to be exercised by Thomas W. Gilboy without interference by the other co-partner.

It appears that a public hearing is not necessary in this matter and that the application should be granted, as herein provided. However, the action taken herein shall not be construed to be a finding of the value of the properties authorized to be transferred.

Thomas W. Gilboy and Dorothy M. Gilboy are hereby placed upon notice that operative rights, as such, do not constitute a class of property which may be capitalized or used as an element of value in rate-fixing for any amount of money in excess of that originally paid to the State as the consideration for the grant of such rights. Aside from their purely permissive aspect, they extend to the holder a full or partial monopoly of a class of business over a particular route. This monopoly feature may be changed or destroyed at any time by the State, which is not in any respect limited to the number of rights which may be giv

IT IS ORDERED:

(1) That Thomas W. Gilboy may, after the effective date hereof and on or before February 23, 1949, transfer, and Thomas W. Gilboy and Dorothy M. Gilboy, co-partners, may acquire the operative rights, property and business to which reference is made in this decision. Such transfer shall be made pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the application.

(2) That applicants shall comply with the provisions of General Order No. 80 and Part IV of General Order No. 93-A by filing, in triplicate, and concurrently making effective, appropriate tariffs and time tables within 60 days from the date hereof and on not less than 5 days' notice to the Commission and the public.

The effective date of this order shall be 20 days after the date hereof.
