

Decision No. 42805

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Lewis Stavis,

Complainant,

vs.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company,

Defendant.

Case No. 5015

ORIGINAL

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY INTERIM RELIEF

Lewis Stavis having filed a verified amended complaint alleging in substance that complainant's telephone service at 1122 South Menlo Avenue, Los Angeles, California, under number FAirfax 0681, has been disconnected by defendant; that said communication facilities were not used as an instrumentality to violate the law nor in aiding or abetting such violation, but were in fact used for personal and social calls and in connection with contracting business; and that irreparable injury and great hardship will result unless said service is restored pending hearing and decision on the complaint; therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is hereby directed to restore telephone service to complainant pending a hearing on said complaint and further Commission order thereon. The amended complaint, assigned to Commissioner Huls, is set for hearing before Examiner Syphers or such other Examiner as may hereafter be designated, at 9:30 o'clock a.m. on Tuesday, June 28, 1949, in the Commission Court Room, Ninth Floor, The Mirror Building, 145 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California.

The Secretary is directed to cause a certified copy of this order, together with a copy of the amended complaint herein, to be served upon The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and said defendant is directed to serve and file its reply to said amended complaint within ten (10) days after such service. The Secretary is directed further to cause a copy of this order to be mailed to complainant.

Dated, Los Angeles, California, April 26th, 1949.
