Decision No. 44390

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of ARTHUR F. TWEEDY and MARRY R. MANGOLD, doing business as TWEEDY & MANGOLD, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate service as a petroleum irregular route carrier over all public highways and between all points and places in the state of California.

Application No. 31229

Applicants herein request a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate as a petroleum irregular route carrier throughout the state for the transportation of petroleum and petroleum products in tank trucks and tank trailers, pursuant to the provisions of Section 50-3/4 of the Public Utilities Act, as amended by Statutes 1949, Chapter 1399.

The amendment referred to provides, among other things, that in the event a petroleum irregular route carrier was, on Soptember 1, 1949, and thereafter, operating under a permit as a radial highway common carrier, and shall file an application within 180 days after the amendment takes effect, the Commission shall issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity without further proceedings, and such certificate shall authorize the carrier to engage in such operations as it was authorized to conduct on September 1, 1949.

Applicants allege in their verified application that, on September 1, 1949, and continously thereafter they were a petroleum monopoly of a class of business over a particular route. This monopoly feature may be changed or destroyed at any time by the state, which is not, in any respect, limited to the number of rights which may be given.
