Application No. 29346
1st Supplemental

ORDER OF REVOCATION

By Decision No. 41856, dated July 20, 1948, in original Application No. 29346, Redwood Highway Furniture Delivery, Inc., a corporation, was authorized to acquire a highway common carrier operative right authorizing the transportation of new household and store furniture and fixtures from San Francisco and Oakland to Healdsburg and points intermediate thereto. The latter right was created by Decision No. 40336, in Application No. 27392.

By supplemental application in this matter the president of Redwood Highway Furniture Delivery, Inc. informed the Commission that on June 1, 1950, all highway common carrier operations conducted pursuant to said Decision No. 40336 were discontinued; that there is no intention to reestablish that service and requests the Commission to revoke any and all certificates of public convenience and necessity heretofore issued to it. Therefore, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the certificate of public convenience and necessity hereinabove referred to is hereby revoked and annulled and all effective tariffs and time tables on file with the Commission in the name of Redwood Highway Furniture Delivery, Inc. are hereby cancelled.

The effective date of this order shall be twenty (20) days after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 19th day of June, 1951.
