In the Matter of the Application of)
John Venice for exemption from the)	Application No. 33604 provisions of General Order 84C re-) garding C.O.D. Bond.)

OPINION AND ORDER

Applicant holds city and highway carrier permits. By Decision No. 45988 of July 24, 1951, in Application No. 32575, he was authorized to handle C.O.D. (collect on delivery) shipments for Heywood-Wakefield Furniture Company, without securing and filing a bond with the Commission as required by General Order No. 84C. This authority expires August 13, 1952. Applicant now seeks an extension of the authority. The shipper involved has again voluntarily waived the protection afforded by the C.O.D. bond requirements.

It appears that this is a matter in which a public hearing is not necessary and that the granting of the sought relief from the bond filing requirements is justified.

Because the conditions under which the C.O.D. service in question is performed may change at any time, the extension will be limited to a one-year period and made subject to such earlier cancellation, change or further extension as circumstances may require. To prevent a lapse of applicant's authority, the order herein will be made effective August 13, 1952.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that John Venice be and he is hereby authorized to handle C.O.D. shipments for Heywood-Wakefield Furniture Company without providing and filing the bond required by General

Order No., 84C; that this authority shall expire one (1) year after the effective date of this order, unless sooner canceled, changed or extended by order of the Commission; and that in all other respects the rules and regulations set forth in General Order No. 84C shall govern the C.O.D. services involved in this proceeding.

This order shall become effective August 13, 1952.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 11th day of August, 1952.
