of PERRY'S EXPRESS for exemption )
from the provisions of General ) Order 84C regarding C.O.D. Bond. )

Application No. 33849

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

By this application Joseph Perry, doing business as Perry's Express, sought a general exemption from the bond filing requirements of General Order 84C in connection with the handling of C.O.D. (collect on delivery) shipments. Subsequently, he filed Application No. 34040, limiting the requested exemption to shippers that have informed the Commission in writing that the bond filing requirements are not necessary in connection with their C.O.D. consignments. In view of the filing of this new application, Application No. 33849 will be dismissed.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above-entitled application be and it is hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 10th day of February, 1953.
