

Decision No. 49284

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of D. J. Clardon, operating under the duly established name of ARROW TRANSFER, for permission to Charge Less than Established Rates for Transporting Flour.)))))))	Application No. 27945 (Seventh Supplemental)
---	---------------------------------	---

SEVENTH SUPPLEMENTAL OPINION AND ORDER

Applicant was authorized to deviate from the established minimum rates in connection with the transportation of flour in truckload lots within the City of San Diego. The authority expired October 29, 1953. Permission is sought to deviate from the minimum rates for a further one-year period.

The verified supplemental application alleges that, except for increased wage costs, the conditions surrounding the transportation in question which have justified deviation from the minimum rates still obtain and that the higher wages have been offset by the use of mechanical means of unloading. It further alleges that operations under the authorized rates have been profitable and may reasonably be expected to continue to result in profitable operations during the ensuing year.

It appears that this is a matter in which a public hearing is not necessary and that the reinstatement of applicant's authority is justified and should be granted. The order herein will be made effective immediately so that applicant's authority will not be inoperative for an appreciable length of time.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the authority granted D. J. Glardon, doing business as Arrow Transfer, by Decision No. 39572 of October 24, 1946, as amended, in this proceeding, be and it is hereby reinstated and extended to October 29, 1954, unless sooner changed or further extended by order of the Commission.

This order shall become effective on the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 3rd day of November, 1953.
